

CYTOIMMUNE THERAPEUTICS WELCOMES ALEKSEY KRYLOV, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Posted on July 16, 2021

With an experienced Chief Financial Officer on board, the company is continuing to advance its fight against cancer.

CytolImmune Therapeutics, a clinical-stage immunotherapy company developing a novel class of natural killer (NK) cell-based cancer therapies, today announce the appointment of Aleksey Krylov as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective as of April 14, 2021.

As the company advances human clinical trial programs in the latter half of 2021, Krylov will lead capital formation, investor relations, financial planning, accounting, financial reporting, control, tax, and treasury functions for CytolImmune.

"We welcome Aleksey to the executive team at a time of exceptional opportunity at CytolImmune and trust his experience in raising capital, taking companies public, and M&A will propel us forward," said Will Rosellini, President of CytolImmune. "The company is on a rapid growth trajectory and has the potential to make a real difference in offering allogeneic outpatient treatments for cancer patients. Aleksey consulted with CytolImmune for nearly a year, so we expect a seamless transition to this full-time CFO role."

"With a diverse and differentiated pipeline of NK cell therapies, together with its own manufacturing capabilities, CytolImmune is well-positioned to bring about affordable therapies to patients with life-threatening liquid and solid cancers," said Krylov. "I am thrilled to join the accomplished academic, scientific and entrepreneurial leadership team at CytolImmune and look forward to contributing to the company's evolution at this exciting time."

Krylov is a strategic CFO with a 20-year track record in the life sciences industry. Previously, he served as a CFO of DIH International, a Swiss-Chinese medical equipment manufacturer with $80M in revenues and 400 employees globally. He also served as CFO of Nasdaq-listed SELLAS Life Sciences. Krylov worked as a consulting CFO with Danforth Advisors. Krylov is also a founder and managing director at Ftera Advisors, LLC, a fractional CFO consulting firm that works with high-growth companies in various industries, including biotechnology. Previously, he worked with CHR Capital as an investment analyst with a focus on M&A, capital raising, and private equity investments. He began his career at Cowen equity capital markets group. Krylov holds an MBA from Columbia Business School and a B.S. in Business Administration from Babson College.
